Carol Stream, Ill., January 21 – Invensys Controls will show its home town spirit at the Chicago 2009 AHR Expo® at McCormick Place, Jan. 26-27, when two National Football League (NFL) Super Bowl champions meet with HVAC contractors, wholesalers and other trade professionals.

The playing field for the Chicago Bears' legends - Richard Dent and Dan Hampton - will be at the Invensys Controls booth 4832. Attendees will have the opportunity to meet the players and see the latest in HVACR offerings.

Richard Dent, All-Pro defensive end for the Chicago Bears, was a 1985 NFL Champion and Most Valuable Player (MVP) of Super Bowl XX. He will be on hand in the Invensys booth to meet and sign autographs on Monday, Jan. 26, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Dan Hampton, formerly of the Chicago Bears, was a first-round draft pick in 1979, played 12 seasons with the Bears, and also was a member of the 1985 Super Bowl Championship team. Hampton, also known as the "Danimal," will meet and sign autographs on Tuesday, Jan. 27, from 2 to 4 p.m.

"This is a great opportunity to show what is new at Invensys Controls and have these home town legendary stars meet our customers and other show visitors," said Neil Yeargin, vice president of water heating, HVACR, automotive and aftermarket.

Invensys Controls will be exhibiting new products and technologies that provide energy savings and environmental benefits.

Visit the Invensys Controls "See the Difference" booth 4832 where attendees can try out the latest products, sign up for the online Customer Toolbox of business support tools, and meet and greet Dent and Hampton.
